

In 1500 BC there were ivory rulers used by the Indus Valley Civilization.

Indians started cultivating cotton during the 5th – 4th millennium BCE and used it for clothing, in the Indus Valley Civilization.

Buttons were first used for decorations on clothes, rather than for fastening. They were first used in the Indus Valley Civilization.

Chess developed out of an ancient board game played during the Gupta Empire in India around the 6th century.

